

Community Integration Supports – Surrey

Progressive Intercultural Community Services Society (PICS) – Settlement & Integration

Program • Free settlement programs for newcomers and refugees. • Services include housing and school orientation, childcare, transportation support, and cultural adaptation. • Location: 205-12725 80 Avenue, Surrey, BC V3W 3A6. • Contact: 604-572-4060 | info@pics.bc.ca • Website: www.pics.bc.ca

DIVERSEcity Community Resources Society – Newcomer Settlement Services

• Provides support for international students, newcomers, and families. • Offers orientation, settlement planning, employment preparation, and youth engagement programs. • Location: 13455 76 Avenue, Surrey, BC V3W 2W3. • Contact: 604-507-6060 | newcomers@dcrs.ca • Website: www.dcrs.ca

Sources Community Resources Centres – Community Inclusion & Life Skills

• Supports individuals with diverse abilities through life-skills and employment readiness training. • Encourages community involvement and inclusion. • Location: 202-15252 32 Avenue, Surrey, BC V3Z 0R7. • Contact: 604-531-6226 | info@sourcesbc.ca • Website: www.sourcesbc.ca

Options Community Services Society – Settlement & Integration / Youth Transition Programs

• Offers settlement and integration programs for newcomers and youth developing independence. • Provides language support, life-skills training, and community connection assistance. • Location: 9815 140 Street, Surrey, BC V3T 4M4. • Contact: 604-572-4060 | settlement@options.bc.ca • Website: www.options.bc.ca

Surrey Libraries – Free Settlement Services for Newcomers

• Provides settlement information, job search help, English practice groups, and citizenship preparation. • Available to all residents and newcomers in Surrey. • Visit any Surrey Library branch or check online for details. • Website: www.surreylibraries.ca/newcomers/free-settlement-services

How Students Can Use These Supports

• Contact the organizations listed above to explore free or low-cost programs. • Attend workshops and orientation events to connect with the Surrey community. • Use these services to improve English, access housing and employment resources, and adapt successfully to local life.

All services listed are community-based and designed to support student integration and well-being.